

Queen Elizabeth's School celebrates students' success in GCSE exams. 22.08.24

Staff and students at Queen Elizabeth's School in Wimborne, part of Initio Learning Trust, are celebrating another set of fantastic GCSE results. Students at QE School join teenagers across the country who are receiving their results after sitting exams throughout May and June. Despite the challenges of the last few years, teenagers have recorded excellent results at GCSE, with the students of QE School being no exception.

The notable achievements include:

Koray Basharan (9,9,8,8,8,7,7,6,5)
Luka Bennett (9,9,9,9,8,8,8,8,8)
Hannah Churchill (9,9,9,9,9,8,8,8,7)
Hayley Dave (9,9,9,8,8,8,7,7,5)
James Garland (9,9,9,8,8,8,8,8,7)
William Harwood (9,9,9,8,7,7,7,7,7)
Rosemary Hosking-Ellis (9,9,8,8,8,8,7,7,7)
William Hoskinson (9,9,8,8,8,8,7,6,6)
Sofia Kritchyna (8,8,7,7,6,6,6,6,5)
Kimberley Larcombe (9,9,8,8,7,7,7,6,6)
Ewan McKay (9,8,8,8,8,8,8,7,5)
Lydia Norrish (9,9,9,9,9,9,9,9,9)
Emily Searle (9,9,9,9,9,8,8,8,8)
Ava Sheridan (9,9,8,8,7,7,7,7,6)
Scarlett Sutcliffe (9,8,8,8,8,8,8,7,6)
Adam Worsdall (9,9,8,8,8,7,7,7,6)

Queen Elizabeth's School Interim Headteacher, Brian Boyes, said: "I am very proud of all our students and want to say a huge well done to them all. It has been a delight to see so many happy faces in our school today. Our students have worked incredibly hard and fully deserve the grades they have achieved".

Liz West, CEO of Initio Learning Trust, said: "Congratulations to everyone at Queen Elizabeth's School for securing such great results. All the hard work put in by teachers and students has paid off and I hope they are proud of their achievements. We wish all the students the best as they move onto sixth form study, training or employment. "